

See East Window Display of All-Wool Smyrna Rugs, Size 30x60, for $1.50

Rugs and Druggets.

Full line Smyrna Rugs now on display, in Persian and Oriental effects, in many rich designs, and must be seen to be appreciated.

26-inch All-Wool Rugs, ten different styles, $1.00 each.

36-inch All-Wool Rugs, $2.00 value, $1.50 each.

Heavy Smyrna Rugs, 36-inch, $2.50 value, now $1.98.

36-inch All-Wool Rugs from $2.48 to $5.00.

Best 16-Wire Tapestry Druggets for $15.00.

Wilton Druggets, 9x12, from $35.00 to $75.00.

26x32 Axminster Rugs, $3.50.

Mats to match these, $1.00 each.

Hartford Axminster Druggets, 9x12, $25.00.

Crochet Shawls.

75c Crochet Shawls, nice size, 2-inch border, 50c.

Beautiful Silk Shawls, in pink, blue and black, $1.50, $2.50, $3.48.

$1.25 Unusually Large Crochet Shawls, pink borders, $1.00.

Medium Size Shawls, fine quality, $1.00 value, 75c.

$2.00 value Hand Crochet Shawls, dainty patterns, with 4-inch borders, $1.50.

$2.00 White Hand-Crochet Shawls, $1.50.

Basement News.

Our best quality of Percales, in short lengths, $1.30.

Great assortment of Light Prints, 5c per yard.

Remnants of Simpson's Best Gray Black and Light Prints, 7 to 12 yards in a piece, 5c yard.

Navy Blue and Mourning Lawns have all been reduced to 5c yard.

One case of 7x8 "Fruit of the Loom" Bleached Cotton, to close out, 1.3c yard.

One lot of 3x8-Inch Brown Cotton, good value, only 5c yard.

The New Fall Suits and Coats

Our Fall line of Suits bring into prominence a number of interesting style developments, which we shall take pleasure in showing.

The New Fall Suits.

Smart and striking Pony Coat Suits and Jacket Suits, made of gray mixture, all woolen material, satin lined, neatly tailored, plaited skirts; price, $17.50.

Up-to-date Jacket Suits, variety of colors, made of extra quality cloth, satin lined, velvet collars with fancy piping, 12-gore skirt; price, $25.00.

Cutaway Box Coat Suit, single-breasted effect, taffeta lined, with velvet collars, box-plaited skirts; prices, $25.00 and $35.00.

Nobby Fall Coats.

We have the season's approved styles in up-to-date Tourist Coats, all woolen fancy mixtures, newest cut; price, $15.00.

Automobile Coats, box and plaited backs, with fancy collars, and trimmed in solid colors, 42 and 52-inch length coats, distinctive in style; price, $20.00.

Attractive Coats in manlike mixtures, in gray and shadow checks and plaid, 52-inch length, with solid color velvet collars and cuffs, a winner, for $25.00.

Our Household Linen Department is prepared to supply all school necessities, such as Sheets, 45c to $1.00 each; Pillow Cases, 10c to 25c each; Bolster Cases, 25c to 50c each; Towels, 5c to 50c each; Napkins, 75c to $3.00 dozen; Fringed Doilies, plain white and with colored borders, 49c to $1.00 dozen, besides Spreads, Comfortables, Blankets, etc.

A special for school children are two purchases—

Colored-Bordered Doilies, 17-inch, worth 75c for 50c.

Colored-Bordered Doilies, 15-inch, worth 62 1/2c, for 40c.

We have received, and now have in stock, another invoice of those Beautiful Hand-Drawn Squares and Centerpieces, 12-inch, 18-inch, 24-inch, 30-inch, 18x36 and 18x54. Our show-window last week of these goods attracted a large number of admiring purchasers, which quite exhausted the supply then on hand. Our present supply is much larger.

To make room for our Fall Draperies we have placed a large number of our 12 1/2c Silksilkines upon the counter with a card marked thus: "Best 12 1/2c Silksilkines now 8 1/3c."

In the Men's Dep't.

Faultless Night Robes, with or without collar, trimmed or plain, all sizes up to 18 1/2, 50c.

But Robes, in many beautiful patterns, all new stock, $8.98, $4.98, $4.48.

Fancy Pajamas, in Madras, cut fall, $2.00 value, $1.25; $1.25 value, $1.00.

Boys' White Laundered Plated Waists, 50c.

All-Linen Initial Handkerchiefs, 12 1/2c.

Blue Plaited-Bosom Madras Shirts, 50c.

Rubber Collars, heat grade, 25c value, 20c.

All-Linen Collars, every style, 12 1/2c.

Fancy Shield Bowls, 12 1/2c.

Domestic Bargains. MAIN FLOOR

Beautiful Light and Dark Percales, 10c and 12 1/2c yard.

Splendid line of Scotch Plaid Ginghams, all new patterns, 12 1/2c.

Large line of Voiles, in light and dark colors, were 16 2/3c, now 8 1/3c.

One lot of Dress Ginghams for children's wear, great variety, 10c value, 7c.

Step in and take a look at our fall line of flannelettes, all double fold, many pretty patterns, 12 1/2c.

Fancy Outings for Kimonos and Dressing Sacques, all new and nobby designs, 12 1/2c and 15c yard.

Dress Goods Dep't.

Ladies' Cloth, 52 inches wide, in gray, blue, brown and green, 75c value, 50c yard.

Fancy Mohairs, in a great variety of styles to pick from, 50c value, 39c.

Large variety of All-Wool Gray Suitings from 50c to $1.50 yard.

Beautiful New Scotch Plaid Silk Ginghams, suitable for children's school dresses and ladies' waists; this fabric looks like silk and wears three times as long; only 25c yard.

THOUGHTS TURN TO INDIAN SUMMER

The Mecklenburg Will Make Its Annual Fox-Hunters' Meet a Crowning Event.

A MORNING EUCHRE PARTY

Miss Aileen Pettit Regarded the Prettiest Girl of the Season.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

THE MECKLENBURG, CHASE CITY, VA., Sept. 1.—The Mecklenburg, an all-the-year-round hotel, has practically no guests during the summer months, but during every other season it is recognized as being well known for its peculiar pastimes and sports, which attract in turn their own clientele. Among those who love the "Indian Summer" are the fox-hunters, who are here for September, and October, the crowning event of which will be the annual October meet, which this year will be on a much more elaborate scale than ever before attempted.

The last social rose of summer, so to speak, took the form of a very large and handsome morning eucharie party given on Saturday morning by Mr. William P. Whitaker, of Badin, as a compliment to her wife, Miss Louise Dixon, of New York City, daughter of Dr. Thomas Dixon, the occasion was a particularly gay one, and so was the general company and the close and spirited game, which resulted in a tie for the first lady's trophy, the "lone-hand prize" and the first gentleman's prize.

Miss Charles P. Stacy was the hostess of the last entertainment of the month, a beautiful cotillion given in honor of Miss Mabel Moore, of Roncovere, who had with Mr. Stacy, ballroom decorations were in chestnut boughs and mountain pine, with red, white and blue bunting; the chandeliers being hidden in feathered parapluies. Receiving with Mrs. Stacy were Mrs. S. C. Berry, Mrs. H. L. Pittard, Mrs. John D. Lewis, Mrs. W. E. Sterrett, Mrs. H. H. Andrews, Mrs. M. H. Higgins, Mrs. Franklin Wilson, Mrs. Eddie, Mrs. Callett, Mrs. Herman Kengett, Miss Sallie Ruffner and Miss Gilliam.

Little Misses Elizabeth Stacy, Isobel and Louise Berry and Masters Palmer and David Stacy distributed the favors, which consisted of attractive silver novelties and a variety of pretty comets.

Twenty-four couples followed their leader through a variety of intricate figures until midnight, when all of Mrs. Stacy's guests were invited in the dining-room to partake of a supper served in the round, and consisting of all available delicacies.

Although the magic hour has sounded, when entertainments are supposed to come to end, and there is nothing done for the September season, the social ball will be kept rolling until the first day of October, the second being Little Miss Emily Wilson, of St. Louis, who will entertain her young friends at a dance party little Miss Beatrice Andrews, who has been invited to the same.

Miss Charles P. Stacy was the hostess of the last entertainment of the month, a beautiful cotillion given by Mr. Charles E. Stewart, of Charleston, on Wednesday, when nearly a hundred and fifty guests enjoyed his hospitality, thirty-five couples taking part in the dance.

The ball-room was elaborately decorated with chestnut boughs, banked against the walls and holding multi-colored Chinese lanterns, the scheme being repeated in the chandeliers, where lantern-covered lights hung from a mass of green.

Mr. Sterrett led the many beautiful figures, with his fair partner, Miss Laura Rutherford, who looked queenly in a creation of white silk gauze, with pearl ornaments. Mr. John D. Lewis, of Charleston, dispensed the handsome favors, silver hat and stick pins for the ladies, pocket-knives and scarfs for the gentlemen.

The chaperones were Madames T. M. Rutherford and James D. Patton, of Richmond, H. L. Pittard and James D. Andrews, of H. H. Andrews, of Norfolk, and Mr. E. H. Hart, of Norfolk, were tied for the Mr. John D. Lewis, whose brilliant heart and shift with the chafing-dish prompt her to gather a few friends in her cozy sitting-room several times a week.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

THE MICKLENBURG, CHASE CITY, VA., Sept. 1.—The Micklenburg, being an all-the-year-round hotel, has practically no guests during the summer months, but during every other season it is recognized as being well known for its peculiar pastimes and sports, which attract in turn their own clientele. Among those who love the "Indian Summer" are the fox-hunters, who are here for September, and October, the crowning event of which will be the annual October meet, which this year will be on a much more elaborate scale than ever before attempted.

The last social rose of summer, so to speak, took the form of a very large and handsome morning eucharie party given on Saturday morning by Mr. William P. Whitaker, of Badin, as a compliment to her wife, Miss Louise Dixon, of New York City, daughter of Dr. Thomas Dixon, the occasion was a particularly gay one, and so was the general company and the close and spirited game, which resulted in a tie for the first lady's trophy, the "lone-hand prize" and the first gentleman's prize.

Miss Charles P. Stacy was the hostess of the last entertainment of the month, a beautiful cotillion given in honor of Miss Mabel Moore, of Roncovere, who was the prettiest girl of the season, according to the judges. Mrs. John D. Lewis, Mrs. W. E. Sterrett, Mrs. H. H. Andrews, Mrs. M. H. Higgins, Mrs. Franklin Wilson, Mrs. Eddie, Mrs. Callett, Mrs. Herman Kengett, Miss Sallie Ruffner and Miss Gilliam.

Little Misses Elizabeth Stacy, Isobel and Louise Berry and Masters Palmer and David Stacy distributed the favors, which consisted of attractive silver novelties and a variety of pretty comets.

Twenty-four couples followed their leader through a variety of intricate figures until midnight, when all of Mrs. Stacy's guests were invited in the dining-room to partake of a supper served in the round, and consisting of all available delicacies.

Although the magic hour has sounded, when entertainments are supposed to come to end, and there is nothing done for the September season, the social ball will be kept rolling until the first day of October, the second being Little Miss Emily Wilson, of St. Louis, who will entertain her young friends at a dance party little Miss Beatrice Andrews, who has been invited to the same.

Miss Charles P. Stacy was the hostess of the last entertainment of the month, a beautiful cotillion given in honor of Miss Mabel Moore, of Roncovere, who was the prettiest girl of the season, according to the judges.

Little Misses Elizabeth Stacy, Isobel and Louise Berry and Masters Palmer and David Stacy distributed the favors, which consisted of attractive silver novelties and a variety of pretty comets.

Twenty-four couples followed their leader through a variety of intricate figures until midnight, when all of Mrs. Stacy's guests were invited in the dining-room to partake of a supper served in the round, and consisting of all available delicacies.

Although the magic hour has sounded, when entertainments are supposed to come to end, and there is nothing done for the September season, the social ball will be kept rolling until the first day of October, the second being Little Miss Emily Wilson, of St. Louis, who will entertain her young friends at a dance party little Miss Beatrice Andrews, who has been invited to the same.

Miss Charles P. Stacy was the hostess of the last entertainment of the month, a beautiful cotillion given in honor of Miss Mabel Moore, of Roncovere, who was the prettiest girl of the season, according to the judges.

Little Misses Elizabeth Stacy, Isobel and Louise Berry and Masters Palmer and David Stacy distributed the favors, which consisted of attractive silver novelties and a variety of pretty comets.

Twenty-four couples followed their leader through a variety of intricate figures until midnight, when all of Mrs. Stacy's guests were invited in the dining-room to partake of a supper served in the round, and consisting of all available delicacies.

Although the magic hour has sounded, when entertainments are supposed to come to end, and there is nothing done for the September season, the social ball will be kept rolling until the first day of October, the second being Little Miss Emily Wilson, of St. Louis, who will entertain her young friends at a dance party little Miss Beatrice Andrews, who has been invited to the same.

Miss Charles P. Stacy was the hostess of the last entertainment of the month, a beautiful cotillion given in honor of Miss Mabel Moore, of Roncovere, who was the prettiest girl of the season, according to the judges.

Little Misses Elizabeth Stacy, Isobel and Louise Berry and Masters Palmer and David Stacy distributed the favors, which consisted of attractive silver novelties and a variety of pretty comets.

Twenty-four couples followed their leader through a variety of intricate figures until midnight, when all of Mrs. Stacy's guests were invited in the dining-room to partake of a supper served in the round, and consisting of all available delicacies.

Although the magic hour has sounded, when entertainments are supposed to come to end, and there is nothing done for the September season, the social ball will be kept rolling until the first day of October, the second being Little Miss Emily Wilson, of St. Louis, who will entertain her young friends at a dance party little Miss Beatrice Andrews, who has been invited to the same.

Miss Charles P. Stacy was the hostess of the last entertainment of the month, a beautiful cotillion given in honor of Miss Mabel Moore, of Roncovere, who was the prettiest girl of the season, according to the judges.

Little Misses Elizabeth Stacy, Isobel and Louise Berry and Masters Palmer and David Stacy distributed the favors, which consisted of attractive silver novelties and a variety of pretty comets.

Twenty-four couples followed their leader through a variety of intricate figures until midnight, when all of Mrs. Stacy's guests were invited in the dining-room to partake of a supper served in the round, and consisting of all available delicacies.

Although the magic hour has sounded, when entertainments are supposed to come to end, and there is nothing done for the September season, the social ball will be kept rolling until the first day of October, the second being Little Miss Emily Wilson, of St. Louis, who will entertain her young friends at a dance party little Miss Beatrice Andrews, who has been invited to the same.

Miss Charles P. Stacy was the hostess of the last entertainment of the month, a beautiful cotillion given in honor of Miss Mabel Moore, of Roncovere, who was the prettiest girl of the season, according to the judges.

Little Misses Elizabeth Stacy, Isobel and Louise Berry and Masters Palmer and David Stacy distributed the favors,